Foreword

We cannot keep our friends with us forever; yet, we will not allow them to fade into obscurity. We cannot remain forever within the shadows of these sacred walls, neither will we suffer them to vanish into nothingness.

To this end the Senior Class of 1945 has endeavored to preserve pictorially within the pages of this book a part of the life of Teachers College as a stimulating memoir.

"Lest Auld Acquaintance Be Forgot," we offer "The Ram" of 1945.

—The Editors.

Reminiscences

“But oft in lonely rooms, and 'mid the din
Of towns and cities, I have owed to them,
In hours of weariness, sensations sweet.
Felt in the blood, and felt along the heart;
And passing even into my purer mind,
With tranquil restoration:—feelings, too,
Of remembered pleasure . . .

Nor wilt thou then forget
That after many wanderings, many years
Of absence, these steep woods and lofty cliffs
And this green pastoral landscape were to me
More dear, both for themselves and thy sake.”

—Wordsworth.

President F. L. Atkins

Our president is a clear picture of moral ideals. He is very much interested in our institution and spares no pains in accelerating its progress. He is a lover of humanity and looks out for its educational welfare at all times. We do sincerely wish him many more successful years in his work.
